Milena is one of the last great sailing yachts still available for charter in the Mediterranean. Built to Lloyds A1 class in teak and oak to a design of Frederick Sheperd in 1928, she has been immaculately maintained by her present owner/skipper for the last 22 years and is still in perfect condition. Accommodation is for 6 in two double cabins and one twin cabin each with its own bathroom. The interior is in the elegant tradition of her period. The bright, spacious saloon comfortably and beautifully furnished, is well-ventilated and cool even in summer. Wide decks afford sunbathing space, a dining area and a large sheltered cockpit. Learn to navigate and sail under the expert tutelage of your skipper, or simply relax and enjoy the special atmosphere on board this ideal yacht for elegant cruising.
